"turkey dinner" report: our successful results!!!

We did great!!! A great witness to our strength as so many of our family came out in great numbers to pitch in from the start to the finish. Thank you! Whether it was with the initial cornbread preparations, the vegetable work or the cakes and dressing mixing—we all came together well and accomplished a much needed task. We can truly be proud of ourselves and most of all—we must thank God Almighty for the safety and success of the day! There have been several calls this week from visitors who were so complimentary of the delicious meal. Some were amazed when I told them the men cooked the turkeys and the gravy. And of course...it does not even need to be said...they were ecstatic about the dressing!!! All in all, the atmosphere was positive and there was great fun had. Deo Gratia!
