turkey dinner & fall festival: next sunday!!!

Our date for having this important and crucial fundraiser is Sunday, October 16. We truly need everyone's help in making this a success. Items are still being accepted for the Country Store and Auction. New raffle tickets with the rescheduled date are also available in the entrance of the church and in the parish office. Sold raffle tickets should be returned either by dropping them in the basket in a marked envelope or bringing them to the office.

And lest we forget these routine and timely items....

We need goodies for the Country Store and the Auction...and we need cakes—lots of them—for the cake wheel. You may bring items directly to the hall on Saturday morning anytime after 9 A.M. or on Sunday. Don't forget to sell your raffle tickets and bring them in Sunday.

catholic daughters meeting: tuesday

Court St. Patrick's #2494 will hold their monthly meeting this Tuesday at 7 P.M. in the Heritage Room. All ladies are encouraged to attend.

preparation days: friday & saturday

All ladies of the parish are asked to come to the parish hall this Friday and Saturday (October 14 & 15) to help with the preparations for the dinner. Work will start at 9 A.M. both days.

ccd update

We have had a generous and ample window allowed for registration since August, and now we are no longer accepting registrations. If you were unable—for some unknown reason—to get your child into CCD this year, information can be given to you about home-schooling your children with religion class so that they will not miss out. One of the main, practical reasons for having to terminate registration is that we are bursting at the seams, and our volunteers are already serving above and beyond the call of duty.

confirmation students...reminder

Students in the Confirmation class are required to work at the Festival both on Saturday and Sunday. Report to the parish hall by 9 A.M.
