

A reflection from the Pastor
"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones," Jesus in today's gospel. Trust is something that we cherish and once it has been broken, it is difficult to regain. This is why Jesus says, when you mean yes, say "yes" and when you mean no, say "no." Each decision we make establishes our trust, not only with others but with our God. Therefore, we need to make good choices. Try this week to take the time to make good choices. You will find that more will find you trustworthy, as the gospel says. The moment we allow ourselves to be dishonest, we open ourselves up for a life of dishonesty and the reaching out to regain trust.

On another note, I want to remind you that I will be away the weekend of October 6-7. I will be taking a few days off beginning on the first of October and returning the following week. There will be a guest presider, Fr. Gabriel Oduro Tawiah from St. Mary's in Victoria. Please welcome him. Due to the fact that he speaks only English, the 8:00 a.m. Sunday Mass will be in English, with the homily to be in Spanish, given by Deacon Fred.

Note that there will be no daily liturgies during the weeks of October 1 or October 8.

If there is a need for the last sacraments, or other pastoral emergency, please call Deacon Fred at 897-1955 or his cell 676-2953.

Thank you to Ismael Perez and Gilbert Gonzalez for power washing the buildings this past Friday. Great job! The next span of good weather in the spring we will more than likely paint the buildings. After multiple cleanings, we are down to cement.

Lastly, please make every effort to support the Turkey Dinner this next weekend, September 30. This is our major fundraiser of the year.

May you have a blessed week,

Fr. Ty

WAYS TO HELP – WHAT'S NEEDED

Auction Items - The auction generates a lot of fun and money for the parish. Search for interesting things that will generate good bidding. Contact Deacon Fred or Patty Soto, auction chairmen for more information or to donate.

Silent Auction – This year, we will have a silent auction for smaller prizes donated to facilitate bidding on larger items. It will be set up and people will be able to bid as soon as the hall opens.

Raffle Tickets – please continue to sell tickets. Please return them before the drawing the day of the dinner. If you need more, you may get them from inside the church.

Meat Donations – The Knights will be taking donations, this weekend.

Canned/Bottled Drinks – This year we will add an outdoor kids game, where you will have to ring a bottle to win a drink. If each parish family could bring two-six packs that would help us in this goal. If you can donate more, great.

Country Store - Home-made and craft items and baked goods. If you are baking and don't mind, please include a ingredients list to help those who might want to buy – but might have allergies. Mrs. Marie Boedeker is chair of the Store.

Cakes for Cake Walk – Each family please bake at least two cakes. The cake walk is a crowd favorite, lets give them some delicious treats.
