

A reflection from the Pastor

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places," in today's gospel.

These words of Jesus should give us hope and faith in these Easter days. That unity of relationship of Jesus and His Father is one that Jesus wants us to share in, so much so that he promises to go and prepare a place for each one of us, so that where he is, we also might be. That is a special gift that Jesus promises. It does mean, that like Thomas, we must find our way to Jesus who is the way, the truth, and the life. What does it mean to find our way to Jesus? In simple terms, it means to put on those virtues and habits of Jesus. Saint Paul says to "put on Christ," Ephesians 2:4 and Galatians 2:3. Jesus who suffered and died for our sins and rose again as the Christ, the anointed one and Messiah is for us the way. When we have sufferings, we need to let them go to the point of their not getting in the way of our relationship with God. When we seem to have lost the way, we need to find our faith and rely on that strength. Try this week to find those moments of faith, hope, and love to show you the way- to show you Jesus the Christ.

As part of our Easter faith series, I will begin printing for your review and study with your families, the catechism of the Catholic Church, under the title "What does the Church teach." Each week, I will present a new section of the catechism. Please make time to read what we believe.

Please remember that the parish Barbecue is next Sunday, April 27, 2008. Tell your family and friends, and please come out to share in the day. It will be a time to share our faith and help the parish for the year to come.

May you have a blessed week.

Why go to Mass... Tips for Parents with Teens

1. Talk to your teens about Mass. If they already love going, this is an opportunity to share faith.

If your teen is struggling with going – try to reason with them. If they say they don't 'feel' like going, tell them that Mass is not about feelings, it's about giving ourselves to God. One hour a week out of 168 hours. It's about discovering what purpose God has for our lives.

2. The best way to help your teen is to witness by your faith. Continue attending Mass even if they are not, encourage them by your faith.

2008 Spring Barbecue News Sunday, April 27

Only one more week...

Things Needed:

Raffle: Please buy the tickets and help sell them. More are available in the church entrance.

Auction Items: Please find nice items to put in the auction. This is a really big boost to the barbecue. Items may be dropped off, the week of the barbecue.

Meat Donations: The Knights of Columbus will be accepting donations this weekend before and after each Mass.

Country Store Items: Baked goods (with ingredients lists), NEW items for sale in the country store are greatly appreciated

Cakes: Please remember that to have a successful cake walk, we need each family to bring at least two cakes each. They may be brought the Saturday before or the day of.

Drinks: If each family could bring a six pack of bottle drinks for the Kids games, that would be great for the prizes.

Please remember to volunteer to work that day- as parish family we can make it run smoothly.

What does the church teach?

CHAPTER ONE - I BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER 198

Our profession of faith begins with God, for God is the First and the Last,¹ the beginning and the end of everything. The Credo begins with God the Father, for the Father is the first divine person of the Most Holy Trinity; our Creed begins with the creation of heaven and earth, for creation is the beginning and the foundation of all God's works.

ARTICLE 1

"I BELIEVE IN GOD THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, CREATOR OF HEAVEN AND EARTH"

Paragraph 1. I Believe in God

199 "I believe in God": this first affirmation of the Apostles' Creed is also the most fundamental. The whole Creed speaks of God, and when it also speaks of man and of the world it does so in relation to God. The other articles of the Creed all depend on the first, just as the remaining Commandments make the first explicit. The other articles help us to know God better as he revealed himself progressively to men. "The faithful first profess their belief in God."²

I. "I Believe in One God"

200 These are the words with which the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed begins. The confession of God's oneness, which has its roots in the divine revelation of the Old Covenant, is inseparable from the profession of God's existence and is equally fundamental. God is unique; there is only one God: "The Christian faith confesses that God is one in nature, substance, and essence."³

201 To Israel, his chosen, God revealed himself as the only One: "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD; and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might."⁴ Through the prophets, God calls Israel and all nations to turn to him, the one and only God: "Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. . . . To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. 'Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength.'"⁵

202 Jesus himself affirms that God is "the one Lord" whom you must love "with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength."⁶ At the same time Jesus gives us to understand that he himself is "the Lord."⁷ To confess that Jesus is Lord is distinctive of Christian faith. This is not contrary to belief in the One God. Nor does believing in the Holy Spirit as "Lord and giver of life" introduce any division into the One God: We firmly believe and confess without reservation that there is only one true God, eternal, infinite (immensus) and unchangeable, incomprehensible, almighty, and ineffable, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit; three persons indeed, but one essence, substance or nature entirely simple.⁸
