

A reflection from the Pastor

"Who are you?," the question posed to John the Baptist in today's gospel. A simple question and yet, John, who was preaching repentance in the desert, did not answer with a long list of works, interests, hobbies, or accolades. I think this is a great perspective for us this third Sunday of Advent. Who we are is something we come to find out, one way or the other, after much trial and error, and after a few humbling situations. As with John, we realize that we count for very little, except in our relationship with the Lord. That is why John simply answered by pointing away from himself – I am only the messenger preparing the way for the Lord. We in our lives, can get so caught up in defining who we are by what we possess (which really becomes 'what possesses us') or by what we have attained in life and yet the example of John shows us that if we have not stepped back and realized we are who we are because of the Lord, then we really do not know who we are completely.

This week, take some time, possibly with the gospel to sit down and reflect on who you are in the Lord, and because of the Lord. This will bring a peace to your soul that will enable you to let go and let God.

As many of you know, one of my goals since I arrived was to have light switches at the entrances to the hall, thus eliminating: 1. hazards by walking into/out of a dark hall to get to the back corner closet to turn on/off circuit breakers, and 2. other breakers being turned off accidentally. I am happy to announce that this has finally been accomplished. Thanks to many hours and the hard work and engineering skill of Martin Cantu, we now have the switches. The system which Martin installed works off a relay system completely wireless to the switches, thus saving a rewiring of the ceiling lighting and replacement of ceiling tiles. Thank you and great job, Martin. This is another example of using our gifts to serve God and the Church. Let us take care of our new system, realized 34 years after the hall was built.

Collection for Archdiocese of Galveston Houston Hurricane IKE Recovery

NEXT SUNDAY

As you may know, the Archdiocese was hit by this major hurricane, one that could have come our way, but did not. The archdiocesan insurance only covers a portion of the rebuilding and humanitarian recovery. It was projected that they will have to make up around $10 million to rebuild/recover. We will take up a second collection to be sent to the Archbishop, next Sunday, December 21 at each Mass.

2009 PARISH CALENDARS

The 2009 parish calendars have arrived. They are available at the church entrance, one per family please. We are grateful to Artero Memorial Chapels who sponsored the calendars this year.

What's your Catholic IQ -Faith Quiz

(Answer coming next week)

PAINTED CHURCH PILGRIMAGE

All the seats have been filled. I will be calling to remind closer to the date.

The Pilgrimage is Monday, December 29.

Schedule of the Day:

8:00 a.m.	Leave St. Patrick's
9:00 a.m.	Visit Praha
9:45 a.m.	Visit Dubina
10:30 a.m.	Visit Ammannsville
11:15 a.m.	Mass High Hill
12:00 a.m.	Lunch at Frank's in Schulenburg
1:30 p.m.	Visit St. Rose of Lima in Schulenburg
2:00 p.m.	Leave for Bloomington
3:00 p.m.	Arrive in Bloomington

Cost: There will be a small collection for vehicle gas. It looks like $10 per person to rent the vans, if we go that direction, which is what I am leaning toward. The other cost would be your meal at Frank's – between $7-10. And then any other incidentals such as souvenirs would be up to you.
