Saints of the Week

August 9-Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, Virgin and Martyr

Edith Stein was born in Breslau(Poland) in 1891, the eleventh child of a Jewish family. Though she was a convinced atheist, through the study of philosophy "the barriers of my rationalist prejudices...were lifted to reveal the world of faith." She became a Catholic in 1922 and was drawn to the Carmelites, entering the order in Cologne in 1933. To protect her community from the punitive laws enacted by the Nazis she went to the Carmelite house at Echt in the Netherlands. Rounded up with others of Jewish origin, including her sister, she was sent to the east for "resettlement." She was murdered at Auschwitz on 9 August 1942 "for no reason other than that she was one of Christ's own people."

August 10-Saint Lawrence, Deacon and Martyr

Lawrence was a deacon of the Roman Church and died a martyr in the persecution of Valerian, four days after the martyrdom of Pope Sixtus II and his companions, four other Roman deacons. Lawrence's tomb is on the Tiburtine Way in the cemetery of Cyriaca; near it Constantine the Great built a church. The cult of Lawrence spread throughout the church by the fourth century.

August 11-Saint Clare, Virgin

Clare was born at Assisi in 1193. She followed her fellow townsman Saint Francis in the path of poverty and became foundress of an Order of Franciscan nuns(Poor Clares). She led a penitential life, yet was rich in works of charity and devotion. She died in 1253.

August 14-Saint Maximilian Mary Kolbe, Priest and Martyr

Maximilian Kolbe was born in Poland in 1894 and was ordained a priest for the Franciscans in 1918. Father Kolbe began devotion to Mary Immaculate, which is now worldwide, and he founded a Franciscan house near Warsaw that became a home for refugees during World War II. In February 1941 he was arrested and sent to the Auschwitz concentration camp where he volunteered to take the place of one of the prisoners who was sentenced to die. Father Maximilian Kolbe was put to death on August 14, 1941, and canonized on October 10, 1982.

Pro-life Corner

The average surgical abortion rate in the US was 1,500,000 each year. We are starting to see a decline in this number. Don't be deceived; some experts believe this decline is due to abortifacient type pills and the more recent RU 486. The babies are still dying. The only thing different is the instrument of death.
