

A reflection from the Pastor

The story of the prodigal Son in today's gospel is one for the ages. This Lenten season has hopefully been about training our minds and hearts to serve the Lord better, and this gospel puts the lump right in our throat. How many of us in the same situation would do the same as the Father? Would we take back one that turned their back on us and spent everything we had given (time, talent, treasure) on a life that was meaningless? Indeed, this is probably a reality that only can be reached by those that are one with the Father through Jesus, and indeed because we are sinners, may only be reached by the Father of all beatitude. But we have to try to be like our heavenly Father, if even just a tiny fraction of his selfless, unconditional love. Would we be like the older son, who stayed and yet was not happy to see the Father take back the prodigal son? We must learn to be happy when the sinner is saved; for a soul has been won back for God – no matter how much the human heart dislikes the sin that has occurred. And lastly, to ponder, would we return? Can we return? Do we need to return, like the prodigal son? Maybe it is some small way that we haven't quite reflected on that we need to stand in right relationship with our Heavenly Father. Take some time this week to sit with these questions – and then come to life again.

Lenten Reflection Were you There?

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?

Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?
Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?
Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb?

Take a few minutes and reflect on your awareness of what Jesus endured on Calvary for your salvation.
