

A reflection from the Pastor

"But when he comes, the Spirit of Truth, he will guide you to all truth," Jesus speaking in today's gospel. Today we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Jesus tells us today that everything the Father has is also his, and that the Spirit is sent from both of them. It is difficult for us to comprehend this reality; that is why it is a mystery. But, it does not mean we cannot seek to understand the mystery through faith. Our faith tells us that the Father, creator of all, sent his Son, born of the Virgin Mary, like us in all things but sin, to save us from our sins. Further, following Jesus' suffering and death, he would be raised on the third day – later ascending back to the Father – body and soul - to send the Holy Spirit to guide us until he returns in glory. We are in that time now, in which we seek to find the truth of God through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Pray this week that all your actions and prayers will be directed to the Father, through the Son in the Holy Spirit.

I pray you all have a blessed Memorial Day. As we remember the men and women who have given of themselves for the sake of freedom and the causes of justice – let us also remember those serving still and the sacrifices they make each day.

Have a blessed week, Fr. Ty

Even though summer officially begins this Sunday, please do not forget to attend Mass each Sunday with your families. Pray about your tithing, giving to the parish collection, as an extension of God's goodness to you. The parish still has to pay bills during the summer and it costs to cool, light, and supply the church. Thank you for your support.
