August 8th,
St. Dominic,
Priest

Dominic, child of the outstanding Guzman family, was born (1170) in old Castile, Spain. He became a diocesan priest with thoughts of missionary work in north Europe. But then he saw the dangers in the virulent Cathar or Albigensian heresy. Dominic lived and preached in evangelical poverty, gathered others around him and so founded the Order of Preachers (called the Dominicans). Dominic labored in France, Spain and Italy. Consumed by work and penance he died, prematurely, on August 6, 1221.

August 10th,
St. Lawrence,
Deacon and Martyr

Lawrence, the most famous of Roman martyrs, was a deacon. Killed four days after Pope Sixtus (cf. August 7), Lawrence became famous because of his youth, evangelical love for the poor, courage before his torturers and sense of humor while dying. Tradition holds that he was roasted to death on a gridiron. He died on August 10, 258. A beautiful basilica of St. Lawrence stands in Rome.

Pro-Life Corner:

August 14- "Even though our counselors see six week babies daily, with arms, legs, and eyes that are closed like newborn puppies, they lie to the women. How many women would have an abortion, if they were told the truth?" Carol Everett, former abortion clinic owner
