April 22 - How bizarre that a government that protects many forms of animal life and some plant life with both fines and/or imprisonment, would turn its back on the most innocent and defenseless of humans, the baby in the womb, and actually fund their death through tax dollar supported Planned Parenthood.

Saints of the Week

April 21st,
St. Anselm,
Bishop and Doctor

Today's saint is one of the most significant figures in Church history, a forerunner of medieval thought. Born in North Italy (1033), Anselm became Benedictine and an outstanding teacher of theology at his monastery in France. In 1093 he was sent to England, to become Archbishop of Canterbury. He had to defend the rights of the Church against the King, and twice suffered exile. His spiritual writings are still helpful. Anselm died in 1109.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.
