Saints of the Week

May 1st,
St. Joseph the Worker

The first day of May – “May Day” – has long been dedicated to labor and the working man. Pope Pius XII in 1955 instituted today’s feast. The Pope expressed a hope that this feast would help in teaching the dignity of labor, and would also bring a spiritual dimension to labor unions and labor legislation.

Pro-Life Corner:

April 27 – “What society would continue if it declared that it is the right of citizens to kill innocent persons by majority [vote]? In the best scenario it would be converted into a tyranny, against which upright persons would have to react, according to this advice by Gandhi: ‘As soon as one understands that obeying unjust laws is contrary to his dignity as a man, no tyranny can dominate him.’” Most Reverend Francisco Gil Hellin

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.
