Saints of the Week

January 13th,
St. Hilary,
Bishop and Doctor

Hilary was born towards the start of the 4th Century, at Poitiers in France. Married and father of a saintly daughter named Abia, Hilary was converted to the Christian faith by reading the Scriptures, especially the Prologue to the Fourth Gospel. As Bishop of Poitiers he fought against the Arians, suffered exile, wrote extensively and helped his people. He died in 367.

January 17th,
St. Anthony,
Abbot

“If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you own, give it to the poor, and come, follow Me.” An orphaned lad named Anthony, 20 years old, heard these words in his church in Egypt. He took them to heart, went into the desert and lived a profoundly spiritual, disciplined life. In penance, prayer and helping others, Anthony lived for over a century and died in 356.

Pro-Life Corner:

January 15th - Lord, please help America awake to the immorality and unconstitutionality of abortion and the duty and power of the government not to promote it but to abolish it.

Here am I Lord, I come to do your will.
