Saints of the Week

June 6th,
St. Norbert,
Bishop

Born in Germany, Norbert led an undisciplined life until dramatically converted to Christ (1115). He started a life of penance, was ordained a priest and began preaching to priests of his day. Norbert then went to a forested area in France called Premontre. There he started a religious order, called Premonstratensians, dedicated to advancing the holiness of priestly life. Made Archbishop of Madgeburg, Norbert continued his efforts for holiness and renewal in the Church. He died in 1134.
