Saints of the Week

September 27th,
St. Vincent DePaul,
Priest

Today we recall the magnificent life of the Saint of Charity, the totally dedicated little "Monsieur Vincent" (1581-1660). A parish priest near Paris, he developed the apostolate of fighting all physical and moral evils of his time. The galley slaves, abandoned babies, prostitutes, victim of war, de-Christianized poor-all came under his mantle of generous care. To develop Christ-like priests he founded the Congregation of the Missions (called Vincentians). He died on this date in 1660 and was canonized a saint in 1737.

What did you do about these babies? We need to wake up every day and ask, what more can I do? Not what can I do, but what more can I do?" Fr.
