October 15th,
St. Teresa of Avila,
Virgin & Doctor

Today's saint lived during the century of Spanish exploration of the New World. Born at Avila, Spain (1515), Teresa entered the Carmelites in 1535, made persistent progress in the way of perfection, had mystical revelations. Setting out on the reform of the Order, she endured many difficulties with unconquered spirit. Teresa composed works of the highest doctrines and mystical theology. She died at age 67 (1582) and was named a Doctor or Teacher of the Church in 1970.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 18- Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn said: "In keeping silent about evil, in burying it so deep within us that no sign of it appears on the surface, we are implanting it, and it will rise up a thousand fold in the future." This certainly applies to abortion and euthanasia today.

Lord let your mercy be on us as we place our trust in you.
