Catechism of the Catholic Church
“He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and was born of the Virgin Mary”

In Brief:

481. Jesus Christ possesses two natures, one divine and the other human, not confused, but united in the one person of God’s son.

482. Christ, being true God and true man, has a human intellect and will, perfectly attuned and subject to his divine intellect and divine will, which he has in common with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

483. The Incarnation is therefore the mystery of the wonderful union of the divine and human natures in the one person of the Word.

Religious Education News:
